

I firmly that you have no business trying to regulate the content of radio, TV, or internet programing that is accessable by adults and by choice. Aren't you glad you are not elected officials? I'm not. Trying to force judeochristian ethics on the public is no different than the Middle Eastern constitutions that impose Islamic Law which our government (you) sostrongly oppose.